Israel, Hamas agree to 'first phase' of plan to end fighting, release hostages: Trump

WASHINGTON, OCT 9 /- Israel and Hamas have agreed to pause fighting in Gaza and release at least some hostages and prisoners in an agreement that was put forward by the Trump administration and would represent the biggest breakthrough in months in the devastating two-year-old war. This means that ALL of the Hostages will be released very soon, and Israel will withdraw their Troops to an agreed upon line as the first steps toward a Strong, Durable, and Everlasting Peace, President Donald Trump wrote on social media. All Parties will be treated fairly! Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said on social media, "With God's help we will bring them all home." Hamas said it had agreed to a deal that will lead to the end of the war in Gaza, the withdrawal of Israeli troops, the entry of aid into Gaza and the exchange of prisoners for hostages. Hamas called on Trump and the mediators to ensure that Israel implements all the provisions of the deal without disavowal or delay in implementation of what was agreed upon.

Hamas plans to release all 20 living hostages this weekend, people familiar with the matter told The Associated Press, while the Israeli military will begin a withdrawal from the majority of Gaza. While many questions remain, the sides appear to be closer than they have been in several months to ending a war that has killed tens of thousands of Palestinians, destroyed most of Gaza and triggered other armed conflicts across the Middle East.
